COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS

(Prisoner Complaint)

NOTICE

Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 5.2 addresses the privacy and security concerns resulting from public access to electronic court files. Under this rule, papers filed with the court should not contain: an individual's full social security number or full birth date; the full name of a person known to be a minor; or a complete financial account number. A filing may include only: the last four digits of a social security number; the year of an individual's birth; a minor's initials; and the last four digits of a financial account number.

Except as noted in this form, plaintiff need not send exhibits, affidavits, grievance or witness statements, or any other materials to the Clerk's Office with this complaint.

In order for your complaint to be filed, it must be accompanied by the filing fee or an application to proceed in forma pauperis.

II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, you may sue state or local officials for the “deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal laws].” Under Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents of Federal Bureau of Narcotics, 403 U.S. 388 (1971), you may sue federal officials for the violation of certain constitutional rights.

A. Are you bringing suit against (check all that apply):

☒Federal officials (a Bivens claim)☒

State or local officials (a § 1983 claim)

B. Section 1983 allows claims alleging the “deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured by the Constitution and [federal laws].” 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, what federal constitutional or statutory right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by state or local officials?

5TH AMENDMENT, 6TH AM., 8TH, 14TH

C. Plaintiffs suing under Bivens may only recover for the violation of certain constitutional rights. If you are suing under Bivens, what constitutional right(s) do you claim is/are being violated by federal officials?

SEE ABOVE

- D. Section 1983 allows defendants to be found liable only when they have acted "under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, or usage, of any State or Territory or the District of Columbia." 42 U.S.C. § 1983. If you are suing under section 1983, explain how each defendant acted under color of state or local law. If you are suing under Bivens, explain how each defendant acted under color of federal law. Attach additional pages if needed.

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

Starting in 2019, and more frequently starting in early 2020 and 2021, I have had several incidents happen to me on or about February 1st 2020, of corrupt activity, not by the same enterprise, that are not too far apart from each other in chronological and geographic proximity; are all tied together, which I believe are a product of corruption and organized crime: blatant attempts to silence me, attempts to murder me, assault, harass and terrorize my life.

In accordance with 42 U.S.C. §1997(e), I have exhausted all my remedies to try to resolve this matter while in the Portage County Jail through the grievance procedure as well as several requests to file Official reports that were ignored, and after release by trying to gain aid from Police Officers and Sherriff Detectives.

Involvement includes: Officers, Deputies, Judges, Attorneys, Wards of the Court, and higher up gang members. I suspect this has been planned for years by Portage County. Everything has been premeditated. Others have lost their lives or been a victim of their overreaching power, corruption and excessive and unnecessary force. In February of 2020 when I was arrested and detained at the Portage County jail, in the events surrounding that arrest, were unreasonable and excessive at best. I was beaten by officers, taisered, cut, held down, kidnapped, taken to a garage, hog tied during transport, put in a restraint chair, injected with drugs and foreign substances, intentionally was made sick (I believe it was meant to kill me), was refused proper medical attention, was not taken to a hospital, was deprived of rights, forced into mental health evaluations against my will in an effort to discredit my perceptions. I am not mentally ill, I was not hallucinating and although some of the things that were done to me by those who were sworn to serve and protect may be hard to believe; the events that I memorialized are true and are real. I ask the Court to provide me any resources that I may need to assist me in bringing the truth out in this matter.
